Member Prospectus

The Australian and New Zealand Gastric and Oesophageal Surgery Association (ANZGOSA) was formed in 2006, to provide a vehicle for improving the surgical management of diseases of the stomach, oesophagus and upper gastrointestinal tract. The Association was registered in late 2006, and its Secretariat is currently based in Adelaide. Membership of the Association is now available.

MISSION AND PURPOSE

The goals of the ANZGOSA are to:

- further develop and promote the specialty practice of upper gastrointestinal surgery within Australia and New Zealand
- organise appropriate educational activities
- promote multidisciplinary engagement
- organise fellowships and other post-FRACS fellowship training opportunities for surgeons seeking additional training in upper gastrointestinal surgery
- promote, and potentially coordinate, research (particularly clinical)
- interact with government and other professional organisations
- construct and publish clinical guidelines

STRUCTURE

The Board of ANZGOSA comprises of up to twelve members. Full ANZGOSA members elect representatives to the Board, which elects its own office bearers. Board members serve for terms of three years. The maximum length of service on the Board is nine years (three terms), while the President serves for one term. Members may stand for re-election after one term of the Board but cannot be re-elected to the Presidency.

Other sub-committees (training, research etc) within ANZGOSA have been established as the organisation has grown; participation by ANZGOSA members in these groups is invited and encouraged.

The current Board is:

President	Iain Thomson
Treasurer	Paul Burton
Board members	Andrew MacCormick
	Cuong Duong
	Paul Cashin
	Sarah Thompson
	Kon Shimokawa
	Neil Merrett
	David Martin
